Kendra Scott Give Back Event Feb. 6 to Benefit Sunbeam Family Services

(OKLAHOMA CITY) – Just in time for Valentine’s Day, Sunbeam Family Services is partnering with Kendra Scott to raise money for its programs that serve the community’s children, families and seniors. On Wednesday, Feb. 6 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., the location at 5810 N. Classen Blvd. will donate 20 percent of proceeds to Sunbeam. Those unable to attend in person can still show support and make a purchase by calling the Kendra Scott Classen Curve location at 405-241-4203. Patrons must mention Sunbeam Family Services at time of purchase.

“The Kendra Scott Give Back event is a great way for customers to shop and while also helping individuals and families in our community,” says Jim Priest, Sunbeam’s chief executive officer. “With your support, the future is bright for our Oklahoma neighbors.”

Sunbeam’s mission is to provide people of all ages with help, hope and the opportunity to succeed through Early Childhood, Foster Care, Counseling and Senior Services programs. Each year, Sunbeam provides wraparound services to 10,000 Oklahomans to break the cycle of generational poverty and help them learn, grow, heal, and thrive.

Through March 31, Sunbeam is asking the community to join them in “giving hope and restoring dignity” for Oklahoma’s homeless seniors through raising $65,000 to fund Sunbeam’s Emergency Senior Shelter, the only homeless shelter for seniors in the state. Each year between 90–110 homeless seniors aged 60 and older seek safety in the Emergency Senior Shelter, many of whom are without a family support system and have a limited monthly income.
