It's Not Too Late to Help Children Thrive
Donations Matched Through Aug. 31

(OKLAHOMA CITY) – Year-round, Sunbeam Family Services helps children learn, grow, heal and thrive. Through Aug. 31, the nonprofit is asking the community to help raise $30,000 to brighten the future of Oklahoma's children.

"Thanks to Tall Oak Midstream, who is matching donations raised during the campaign up to $5,000, it's not too late to join in the movement to support children in Oklahoma," said Angie Doss, chief external relations officer. "For over 112 years, Sunbeam Family Services has been at the forefront of helping children learn, grow and thrive. We are so close to meeting our goal we need your help to continue providing high-quality services to help children in our community."

Donations support families like Kim, a single mom with four children - two of whom are disabled.

The teachers at Educare Oklahoma City, a program of Sunbeam Family Services, learned how to feed Tianna through her feeding tube. They also arranged their class schedule to meet Tianna's feeding needs and helped Kim access all the services Tianna qualified for to help her thrive.

"With the help of Sunbeam, I was able to return to work and care for my other three children," said Kim. "I would not be the woman I am today, and Tianna would not be where she is today, without all the love and support Sunbeam has given us!"

Join the movement to help children grow, heal, learn and thrive. To make a donation visit SunbeamFamilyServices.org/thrive or call 405-609-8994.

Sunbeam's mission is to provide people of all ages with help, hope, and the opportunity to succeed through Early Childhood, Foster Care, Counseling and Senior Services. Last year alone, nearly 15,000 Oklahomans benefited from Sunbeam's services.
